CAPRICORN HOTELS :: LONDON

Fine individual hotels in the very heart of London

Welcome to The Blandford

Located in the heart of London, yet in a quiet suburban setting, The Blandford is perfect for a relaxing visit to one of the world's most vibrant cities. Newly refurbished to the highest contemporary standards, The Blandford offers both the leisure and business guest unrivalled comfort and convenience.

With Regents Park and its world famous zoo and wide open spaces, Baker Street tube station on the doorstep, and within walking distance of world class shopping in Oxford Street and Bond Street, plus the new Westfield Centre nearby, The Blandford is the ideal base for your leisure stay, with no less than 135 different locations within easy reach.

For the business traveller, the major trading districts are all within easy reach, with public transport links to major airports and railway stations just round the corner. All our rooms offer excellent working facilities with high speed internet access.

The contemporary style of the 34 en-suite rooms provides a welcoming and inviting atmosphere in which you can relax or work. For eating out, we offer a extensive choice of restaurants, with the tempting choice of cuisines from Marylebone's best restaurants and bars on your doorstep.

Our multi-lingual staff look forward to welcoming you to the tranquil setting that is The Blandford and to ensuring your stay with us is a memorable experience.
